

How to find Tårnbygningen for the after lunch session of the PhD-course on your own (in pictures)

The bus stop is called Universitetet i Ås. Turn left out of the bus and enter the university area just a few meters down the road. Tårnbygningen is the big building on your left on the first photo.

Enter the building on the side or front, and find the room at the far end of the corridor to your left.
