

How to get to the CauBio symposium in the TF building

The bus stop is called Aud Max. Arriving from the train station at Ås, the TF building is the first white university building on the right side.

You need to enter through the grey fence.

The symposium will be in the building to the right, first floor, room to your left.

