

Global Land Tool Network (GLTN) Expert Group Meeting

Exploring the Youth Dimensions of the Global Land Agenda

January 24-25, 2012

Meeting Room/Building: Parkgården P207
Centre for Land Tenure Studies (CLTS-UMB)
Norwegian University of Life Sciences (UMB)
Ås, Norway

Day 1: Tuesday, 24 January 2012
08:30-09:00	Registration
09:00-09:45	Chair: Clarissa Augustinus, UN-HABITAT Opening address and welcome messages Opening address: Erik Berg, Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs Welcome address: Hans Fredrik Hoen, Norwegian University of Life Sciences Welcome to the Centre: Stein Holden, Centre for Land Tenure Studies Message from GLTN partner: Fiona Fairweather, Faculty of Law & Social Sciences, University of East London Message on youth mainstreaming: Anantha Krishnan, UN-HABITAT Introduction to the Global Land Tool Network and its mandate: Åsa Jonsson, UN-HABITAT
09:45-10:15	Workshop agenda and expectations: Åsa Jonsson, UN-HABITAT
10:15-10:45	Tea/coffee break
10:45-11:45	Facilitator: Åsa Jonsson, UN-HABITAT Why focus on youth and land? Presentation of GLTN Scoping Study findings: Siraj Sait, University of East London Discussant: Willem van Vliet, University of Colorado Followed by facilitated discussion
11:45-13:30	Facilitator: Jean du Plessis, UN-HABITAT Panel 1: Setting the context: Identifying the youth and land concerns Indigenous youth and land in Mexico: Mindhahi Munoz, COMDES, Mexico Youth and land in the Arab world: Hoda Mansour, Egypt Youth and land in the Norwegian context: Erling Berge, Department of Landscape Planning, UMB Youth and land in the context of urban informal settlements in South Africa: Kholeka Xuza, Slum Dwellers International, South Africa Youth and land in Tanzania: the contexts of foreign investment and HIV/AIDS: Richard Mabala, TAMASHA, Tanzania Youth and land fragmentation in Ethiopia, Sosina Besu, Addis Abeba University Discussant: Stein Holden, CLTS-UMB Followed by facilitated discussion

13:30-14:30	Lunch
14:30-16:00	Facilitator: Åsa Jonsson, UN-HABITAT Panel 2: Examples of projects with a youth and land dimension Youth engagement in mapping of informal settlements: Jamie Lundine, MAP Kibera, Kenya Brazil response (exact topic TBD): Joao Scarpelini, Brazil Small-holders Foundation in Nigeria: Nnamake Ikegwuonu, Nigeria World Bank project in Mexico: Fernando Galeana, World Bank Projects in Argentina: Nienke Busscher, International Alliance on Land Tenure and Administration Discussant: Richard Mabala, TAMASHA Followed by facilitated discussion
15:30-16:00	Tea/coffee break
16:00-17:30	Facilitator: Jean du Plessis, UN-HABITAT Group work: (facilitators and rapporteurs TBD) <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What are the most pressing youth and land concerns globally? 2. Are there any regions/countries and particular issues that stand-out as needing particular attention? 3. How can youth perspectives best be integrated into land projects? 4. What challenges and opportunities arise from the above? Plenary presentations and discussions
Day 2: Wednesday 25 January 2012
09:00-09:30	Facilitator: Åsa Jonsson and Jean du Plessis, UN-HABITAT Reflections from the previous day
09:30-10:45	Facilitator: Åsa Jonsson, UN-HABITAT Panel 3: Programme responses to youth and land challenges Norwegian government's strategy for youth and development: TBD Youth-friendly cities: Willem van Vliet, University of Colorado Recruiting youth into the land profession: Kate Farie, Young Surveyors Network, FIG Lessons from working on gender and land: Siraj Sait, University of East London Discussant: Clarissa Augustinus, UN-HABITAT Followed by facilitated discussion
10:45-11:15	Tea/coffee break
11:15-12:45	Facilitator: Jean du Plessis, UN-HABITAT Next steps for GLTN partners and other actors GLTN's responses to land concerns: Clarissa Augustinus, UN-HABITAT Facilitated discussion on integrating a youth dimensions for GLTN and other actors
12:45-14:00	Lunch
14:00-15:30	Facilitator: Åsa Jonsson, UN-HABITAT Group work to develop recommendations based on the above discussions Facilitated plenary discussion

15:30-16:00	Tea/coffee break
16:00-17:30	Conclusions Evaluation of the meeting Closing remarks on behalf of UN-HABITAT: Anantha Krishnan, UN-HABITAT Closing by UMB: Stein Holden, Centre for Land Tenure Studies