Overlooking the visual - Demystifying the Art of Design

Kathryn Moore

Kathryn Moore er professor ved Birmingham Institute of Art and Design, Birmingham City University, UK. Hun er past president av Landscape Institute (LI) og Lis delegat til IFLA.

Kathryn Moore foreleser og skriver om design og kvalitet, teori og praksis.

Overlooking the visual er tittelen på hennes siste, og helt blodferske bok, som ble lansert 10. desember 2009. Fra vaskeseddelen siteres:

Making tangible connections between theory and practice, ideas and form, this book encourages debate about the artistic, conceptual, and cultural significance of the way things look. What are the metaphysical concepts at the heart of design education, theory, and philosophy? Why do we assume that design is impossible to teach?

This book challenges the traditional foundations of perception and takes an imaginative, radical approach, setting itself apart from the traditions of analytical philosophy, evolutionary psychology, and phenomenology which underpin much of current design theory and discourse. The new definition of perception produces startling consequences for conceptions of language, intelligence, meaning, the senses, emotions and subjectivity. This is an innovative, fresh view on design and how we can improve it for both practitioners and students in the architecture and design fields as well as philosophers.

Kathryn Moore vil holde en forelesning basert på boken

Marius Fiskevold har lest boken og vil komme med sine refleksjoner og kommentarer
