

GUIDELINES FOR THE USE OF PERSONAL COMPUTERS IN CENTRALLY
ADMINISTERED, WRITTEN AND SUPERVISED EXAMINATIONS AT THE
NORWEGIAN UNIVERSITY OF LIFE
SCIENCES (UMB)

Established by the Committee for Course Programmes on 22 October 2003.
Revised 26.11.07

- I. The PC shall not have an Internet connection, unless this is specifically approved as a special arrangement in accordance with the Regulations for Examinations at the Norwegian University of Life Sciences, with Supplementary Provisions, Chapter 5, or has been approved as an examination aid.
- II. UMB is not liable for loss of text or data resulting from power failure or computer defects. In case of any irregularities, the Department of Academic Affairs should be contacted.
- III. The examination answers shall be handed in as a print-out, complete with the examinee number. If nothing else has been stated on the examination papers, the print-out and the supplied diskette shall be placed in the cover sheet.
- IV. If the examinee wants to familiarise him/herself with the PC, printer and software that are supplied during the examination, the examinee must do so on his/her own initiative prior to the examination
